CLASS HISTORY

Going back to September 1947. Do you remember it? Some of you may not, but we, "the class of '51" remember it as one of the grandest times in our lives. Maybe the upperclassmen didn't think much of us then, but if they could only see us now, wouldn't they change their minds. We are proud of our class, as other classes have been proud of theirs in the years gone before us.

It all started in September, 1947, when we enrolled in the high school building, even though the upperclassmen were a bit disappointed in us as we often got in their way. After we were settled, we chose our class officers: David Moses, president; Gail Greiling, vice-president; Marilyn Walker, secretary; Jim Good, treasurer, with Mrs. Leib as our class sponsor.

In our freshman year we chose as our motto: "Be sharp, be natural, but never be flat," our flower, a yellow rose and our colors, blue and white. Again it was time for new officers to be chosen. As freshmen leaders, we chose Jim Hetrick, president; Charles Moses, vice-president... Gail Greiling, secretary; Suzie Squire, treasurer and Mr. Stouder was our class sponsor. This year we had a barn party out at Miriam Flickingers.

Our Sophomore year was one of our big moments as we moved into the big assembly. Miss Aungst was our class sponsor. This time we chose Roger Berkes as our president; Elizabeth Thrapp, vice-president; Josephine Goodwin, secretary; and Kenny Freiburger, treasurer. We ordered blue class sweaters with white "K's" and numerals. After our sweaters arrived all you saw for two or three weeks was blue, blue, blue, which we were proud of.

Soon we knew we were in the upper bracket. We were busy in our junior year preparing a banquet for the seniors; giving the play "Little Women" and ordering our class rings. Also this year we were kept busy selling magazines with the help of Miss Power. Our class officers were elected with Elizabeth Thrapp, president; Miriam Flickinger, vice-president; Janet Shaffer, secretary, Joyce Milner, treasurer.

Finally the year that we had been waiting patiently for was here. We knew that this would be the last time that we would all be together. Our class officers were: Leo Hornett, president; Jack Lantz, vice-president; Janet Shaffer, secretary; Kenny Freiburger, treasurer. Our class party was one of the best we had ever had with folk dancing which was enjoyed by every one. Our senior pictures were taken, graduation announcements and name cards were ordered and then our caps and gowns. We presented our senior play, "In a House Like This", on December 5th and 6th. Soon we started going to parties being held in our honor.

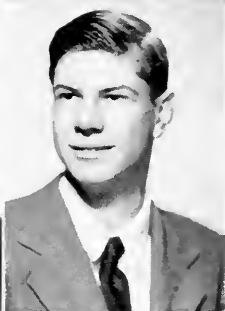

When we finally came to a finish there were sixty-three of us left. Now with graduation on its way we are thinking what we will be doing in the near future. We want to thank our class sponsor Miss Goodwin who led us through our last year in high school. Remember K. H. S. is still the best place in the world.

BEYOND THE BLUE HORIZON

Seniors, faculty and school board members were taken "Beyond the Blue Horizon" as the honored guests of the Junior Class at the annual Junior-Senior banquet. This memorable event was under the direction of Miss Bessie Power.

Wall panels, depicting cherubs at play, intensified the feeling of being "Beyond the Blue Horizon" and star studded blue paper streamers were fastened to the walls and were also draped to converge in the center of the ceiling in a cluster of showering stars. A cloud bank fronted the stage which looked to the blue horizon. Two baskets of lorsythias were the only decoration on the stage.

The dinner, which was under the direction of Miss Helen Vardaman, was served at small tables which carried out the heavenly motif. The centerpieces were blue star-studded candles in star-shaped candle holders surrounded by "angel" boys and girl graduates. Blue and silver wagon nut cups were hitched to stars in angle hair clouds at the base of the candles. Cherubs also appeared on the front of the blue metal paper program covers.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Kendallville Comets completed the 1950-1951 season with a very good record of 21 wins in 25 games. The Comets lost to Auburn in the Holiday Tournament, but beat them in conference play to end Auburn's perfect record for the last five years against the Comets. The Comets won the N.E.I.C. Conference title with 6 wins and 1 loss. They won the Sectional for the second straight year by defeating the Ligionier Raiders. Decatur was red hot in turning back the Comets in the Regional.

The Comets set a new record, in scoring 1422 points in 25 games for a range of 56.9 as compared to 43.8 for their opponents.

BOYS ATHLETICS

GIRLS' ATHLETICS

1950-51 has been a banner year for Girls' Sports. The gym was redecorated so that ping pong and shuffleboard can be played on the balcony while volley ball and basketball game are in progress on the floor. In this way a lot more people have been able to enjoy the facilities of the little gym.

G.A.A. met every Monday evening in the gym and on Thursday went to the Bowling Alleys. This sport is becoming very popular.

A Bake Sale and the selling of plastic towels were used to raise money. A Valentine Dance was sponsored by the G.A.A. after the LaGrange game.

Janice Owen, President; Miriam Flickinger, Vice-President; Miss Miller, Sponsor and Nancy Heighn, Secretary-Treasurer; are to be congratulated on the swell year we had in G.A.A.

VOLLEY BALL

K.H.S. girls made volley-ball history this year. The play at Auburn was a lot of fun with Kendallville winning 4 out of 6 games. Then in February Auburn came to Kendallville to play and the girls followed the basketball team's example and beat Auburn in both games! On April 9, girls journeyed to meet South Bend Central's team.

JUNIOR G. A. A.

Something new was added this year to the Girls' Athletic Department — A Junior G.A.A. was formed. Miss Wilhelm, a new teacher in K.H.S. was sponsor of this. These girls met every Wednesday after school and enjoyed volley ball and kick-ball.

DIRECTORS

Kendallville High School is very fortunate in having two major choral groups, these being the Junior High Girls' Chorus and the A Capella Choir.

These are both under the direction of Mr. Boegli, and our vocal department has benefited greatly under his guidance.

The instrumental department of Kendallville High School is directed by Chester Curry, who very capably instructs the different sections of this department. The High School Band has greatly improved under his direction.

A CAPELLA CHOIR

A Capella, with forty-five members, is the larger of the choir groups. Membership depends on four major factors: attendance, deportment, class rank, and voice and experience. The Choir went caroling at Christmas time, sang at the Good Friday service, and gave their final performance at Baccalaureate.

CHOIR MEMBERS

In this age of speed, discoveries, and confusion, it seems indeed a short time ago since we, the cabinet held our picnic. At this meeting we learned that our theme for the year was "A Better World Begins With Me." Since then we have had many interesting meetings:

September 19: The first meeting of the year was held in picnic form at Bixler Lake. Pat Fiantl led devotions and Grace Wiese and Mimi Flickinger led group singing. The Cabinet then interpreted the code for the new girls.

October 3: Our guest speaker, Rev. Petznik, gave a very interesting talk on "What We Can Believe."

Devotions were led by Olive Spannagel and Pat Frey and Carol Howell led group singing.

October 17: Since we were the hosts for the conference of this area this year, we held a very short meeting and then worked on the conference. Devotions were led by Carolyn Cummins and Jerry Caldwell and Elizabeth Thrapp led group singing. Chocolate bars were collected to be sent overseas. This was the annual Roll Call Week. We collected over one hundred.

November 14: Recognition for the new members was held in the little gym with a beautiful candle-light service.

November 28: "Take a Look at Yourself" was the title of an informative and interesting speech given by Dr. Lawrence Hess of Ft. Wayne at the annual Father-Daughter Dessert. The decorations carried out a wintertime theme. Grace was sung by Carolyn Baker. Elizabeth Thrapp gave the welcome to which Rev. Cummins responded. Devotions were led by Janet Shaffer and Ann Appleman and Sara Grubb led group singing.

December 12: Because of a ball game, we ate box lunches in the sewing room at 4:00. Remember? Jean Botchuck led devotions with group singing in charge of Sandra Butler. Then Mrs. Elizabeth Shaffer of the Warner Beauty College gave us an interesting talk on beauty and many helpful hints.

December 18: We couldn't have had more fun than we had entertaining the under-privileged children at our annual Xmas party.

January 21: Following devotions by Miriam Flickinger, a clever skit "How Come February" was presented and arranged by the program committee with Susie Squire as Em. C. We had loads of fun! We divided into four groups and concluded by singing popular songs. Each of us received a package of hearts, too.

February 6: The Mother-Daughter Dessert is a memorable occasion each year. This night the decorations followed a UN theme and as our speaker we had Miss Jeanette Elisha of Palestine. She told us of customs and conditions in her country and she was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Grace was spoken by Mrs. Evan Bergwall. Devotions were in charge of Nancy Gaskill and group singing was led by Bertha Haney. Mrs. Brady and Sandra Butler sang appropriate solos and Mary Brady gave a clever reading.

February 20: Mr. Mac Gaunt gave an interesting talk on race problems entitled "Friends Around the World." Miriam Flickinger led devotions and Barbara Hinkley led group singing. We concluded with an informative discussion on race relations.

March 6: Second semester Recognition was held in the form of a candlelighting ceremony for the new members.

April 3: Mr. Voyle Herr gave a very interesting talk on "What the Business World Expects of You." Pat Kline was in charge of devotions and Sharon Stonebraker led group singing.

April 17: Golly, wasn't that a delightful meeting we had tonight? Dianne Erwin, Janice Owen, Carolyn Lash, and Janet Shaffer reviewed different books for us under the title "A Better World Through Better Reading." Devotions were led by Carolyn Spidel and Mary Brady and Nadine Windle led group singing.

March 20: "What Next" was the title of a very interesting speech on the future by Mr. Estal Smutts, a vocational guidance director in Ft. Wayne. Devotions were led by Marilyn Seany. Helen Brown and Betty Fisher led group singing with Jim Hetrick as guest leader. Refreshments were then served. Besides boys as our guests, we had several guest teachers.

May 1: "The Way to Peace" was the subject of our last guest speaker of the year. We all enjoyed it very much. Esther Garrison was in charge of devotions and Jean Hosler led group singing.

May 15: This was a sad night for us seniors. The Y-Teens held their annual farewell for the seniors at which time the new officers for next year were installed. We concluded with the singing of "Follow the Gleam" and "Taps." These are the songs with which we close each meeting.

May 18: This was the grandest night of the year. The Y-Teens held a formal dance in the gym. We had a wonderful time and it is the nicest way to close another successful year of Y-Teen work.

The Y-Teens also went on several trips. We spent a wonderful but cold week-end at Turkey Run State Park. Remember? Then several of us attended the Northern Indiana Conference in Gary, March 17. A most enjoyable time was spent in Chicago attending the matinee performance of "South Pacific."

We spent some of our money for needed articles for the school. Among the largest were a motion picture machine, a scoreboard for the big gym, and a delinescope.

Yes, you're pure as a pearl if you're a Y-Teen girl!

FFA

The Officers who served our F.F.A. Club for the past year were: President, Cecil Dickerson; Vice-President, Donald Cochenaur; Treasurer, Joe Landgraff; Secretary, Larry Ackerman; Reporter, John Weber; and Watch Dog, Lloyd Getts.

The organization was started in January of 1949 and at the time had nothing but green hands. However, they have increased somewhat and now they have the position of green hand and chapter farmer. The Club has done quite well and has managed to carry out money-making projects that have proved to be successful. For instance, the pencils and garden seeds are two of the articles followed by the New Years tourney concessions. All in all, they are a hard working group of boys; for their motto is: Learning to do, Doing to Learn, Earning to Live, and Living to serve.

These are the boys who have done the dairy judging for K.H.S. They won the county and they tied for 8th in the district, they went on to state to receive 5th and then on October 7-14 they attended the International Dairy Exposition where they got 3rd place. The members are from left to right: Larry Ackerman, Bill Krueckeberg, Jack Frederick, Dale Schinbeckler (coach), Dave Zawadzke and Bob Krueckeberg.

STATE WINNERS

1. State Fair Judging awards were again taken by the Kendallville N.J.V.G.A. This time it was John Edwards, Bill Krueckeburg, Bob Krueckeburg, Ed Miller and Dale Schinbeckler, coach.

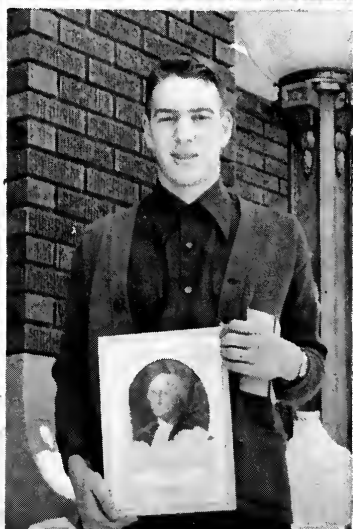

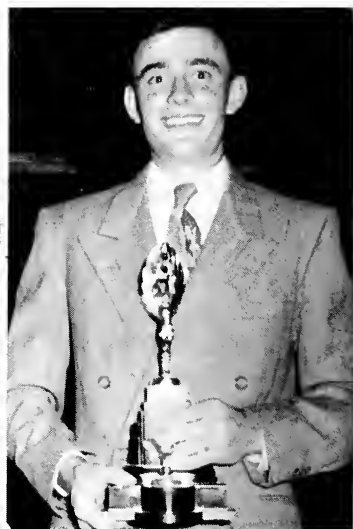

2. Janet Shaffer won the District Demonstration; then went on to New Orleans where she gave it there.

3. The Muck Crops Contest consisted of judging, grading, and identification of vegetables. The boys that won first were: Bob Perkins, Wilbur Getts, and Ed Miller.

MISCELLANEOUS

1. Here is Edward Miller receiving the pioneer corn award for having the highest yield in the contest.
2. Kenny and Joe were two of the members in tractor maintenance and, they were also in the plowing contest.
3. Kay Schuman was a dairy record winner for the Kraft Milk Company's contest.
4. Jack Frederick was fortunate to get the trophy which he has in his possession now. He was high in 4-H in the county.
5. Robert Perkins was the District III Treasurer for F.F.A. and was elected at the State F.F.A. Convention.

NEW ORLEANS

1, 2, 3, are picture taken at the Annual Banquet of the N.J.V.G.A.

5. On one of our side trips, we visited an orange grove and this is a picture of one of the many trees.

6. We also visited Port Sulfur where they load the sulfur into a large ship and send it out.

MILFORD TOWNSHIP

1. Clyde James and his angus steer, which he exhibited at the LaGrange County Fair.
2. David Zawadzke has a good looking start in his pig project that he exhibited at the Noble County Fair.
3. Jimmy Richards and his reserve Champion harrow.
4. Don Gochenaur and his Guernsey bull.
5. Don Gochenaur and his Herford steer that he exhibited at the LaGrange County Fair.
6. Hilton Paulus also had a Herford steer that was exhibited.

WAYNE TOWNSHIP

1. Larry Ackerman and his Holstein heifer that he has here, is going to be a big improvement to his started herd.
2. Sally Sigler was the champion showman for the Noble County Fair.
3. This was one of the events when the Tour of Wayne Twp. was in session. Here we see a group of boys around Judy Thompson's prize sheep.
4. This is a "corny" event while testing for the nitrogen content in a stalk of corn.
5. Here is Bob and his calf. This will be a candidate for the Noble County Fair next fall.
6. Dave Zawadzke and his Poland China pigs. He kept records and, they were shown at the fair.

JUDGING TEAMS

1. Ed Miller, Bill Freshe, Bob DePew, and Harold Jennings were the Noble County Crops team.
2. The LaGrange Livestock team consisted of Cecil Dickerson, Dave Fiandt, Kenny Alexander, and Robert Bryant.
3. Winners of the 1951 Poultry judging contest were: John Weber, Kenny Bodenhafer, Joe Landgraff, and Lloyd Getts.
4. The Crops team at the LaGrange county contest was: Cecil Dickerson, Clyde James, Hilton Paulus, and James Luffman.
5. Freshmen showing great improvement in Vegetable judging were: Gene Flickinger, Earl Getts, Jim Edwards, Donald Rose, and Wyman Wert.
6. The Milford Twp. Poultry team consisted of: Cecil Dickerson, Don Gochenaur, Duane Kent, and Bob Mory.

NATIONAL THESPIANS

The National Thespians are an organized group of high school students and teachers interested in raising dramatic standards in every state in the union. This year our Wig & Paint Dramatics Club applied for membership and 14 of us qualified as charter members, and several others will be accepted before the end of the school year. This group is known as National Thespian Troupe 1106 with Miss Robertson as sponsor. In our school the National Thespians will act as an honor group within Wig & Paint. Membership is open to any student in school who earns 10 points in good work done in any of the many branches of dramatic activity.

Wig and Paint proved to be an interesting and entertaining club during the year, 1950-1951. Our meetings were set off by the fall picnic and followed by meetings of Freshman-Parent Night, a Christmas party and many short skits and plays.

An important accomplishment of this year was our acceptance into the National Thespian Club. We obtained honorary membership and a troop number which is 1106.

In the spring the club presented a three-act comedy, "Sleeping Beauty of Loreland." The spring party and installation of officers brought the school year to an end.

AUDITORIUM

"WHAT IS THE AUDITORIUM PROGRAM THIS WEEK?"

That is a common question around Kendallville High School. The answer could be, "A program presented by the student body," or "One of the two or three major play productions of the year." Five or six times the answer would be, "Professional talent sent to us by the School Assembly Service." All the programs which are planned and presented by Miss Robertson in our beautiful auditorium are worthy of the pride that Kendallville High School has for them.

September 8—Rules, customs, and activities, were introduced to new students and renewed for the old students in the form of a minstrel show with Susie Squire, Jack Lantz, Jim Hetrick, and Kenny Frieberger as end men. Elizabeth Thrapp was interlocuter.

September 15—Class meetings were held and each class chose its officers.

September 22—"How's Your Driving," a question and answer program led by Mr. Stouder with students from the audience participating.

October 6—It seems that last summer many students had very interesting part-time jobs and were glad to share their experiences with their friends and teachers.

October 12—The Roller Skaters, the first of our professional talent presented several intricate and beautiful skate dance steps and acrobatics.

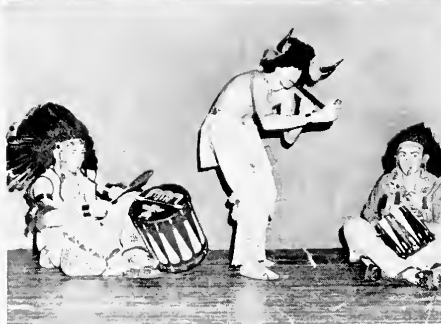

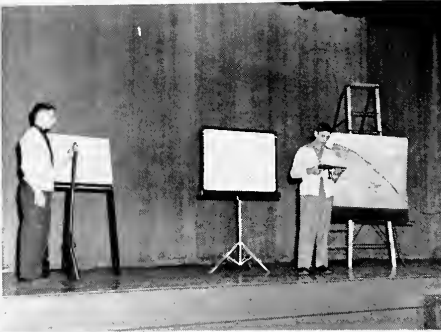

October 17—The Holland Company showed us a touch of old Holland in a delightful program of songs and dances.

October 25—Twelve people tried out for cheer leaders and Dianne Erwin, Olive Spannagel, and Jack Lantz were elected.

November 3—A pep session was held in the high school gym in preparation for the first game of the season with Angola.

November 10—The freshman class presented the program including a play, "Follow the Gleam."

November 17—The Grishams entertained everyone with a very pleasing hour of "Songs America Loves."

AUDITORIUM

December 1—Three movies, "Shortest Way Home," "Dizzy Kitty", and "Bows and Arrows" were shown by Mr. Stouder.

December 7—The Senior play, "In a House Like This" was presented in three acts.

December 14—Colonel Davies from England, another from our professional talent series discussed the present war situation.

December 22—The annual Christmas carol program was presented by the High School Chorus directed by Mr. Boegli.

January 5—A "Choose a Number" program was prented with the audience choosing the talent. Stunts of humorous, serious, and educational variety were given.

January 12—In a talent show, we found that each class has some very gifted people.

Februarv 9—A program of music was given by those students who were to participate in the Music Contest at Ft. Wayne.

February 16—Miss Robertson's speech classes helped us celebrate George Washington's birthday with a choral reading called "If He Could Speak."

February 20—A pep session was held and the students were prepared for the sectional.

March 16—The last of our student talent shows for this year was given.

April 6—Nutchuck was back again to delight us all with one of his interesting programs.

April 13—Miss Robertson's Speech Classes presented the program.

April 27—The operetta "H.M.S. Pinafore" was presented by the High school chorus and directed by Mr. Boegli.

May 11—National Music Week was the theme for this program.

IN A HOUSE LIKE THIS

The Senior Class of 1951 presented the class play "In a House Like This" by Lewis Bech and produced by Miss Robertson. The play takes place in the home of a typical American family. In the first act Ronald and his mother, Julia, have an argument over her actions to him as a son. Giles and Lois have a lovers' quarrel and Lois says she won't see Giles. Since a girl has had to quit her part in Bradley's play, he convinces Granny to take her part. Hugh, their son in New York, calls to tell Bernard and Eunice they are to be grandparents.

Act two opens the night of the play. Brad and Granny have an argument over the way she acts. Ronald and his sweetheart Mary come to tell Eunice they intend to elope but Eunice persuades them to talk to their parents first. Noel brings bad news that there is no water supply for the greenhouse. After all have left to help, Granny calls Aunt Julia and tells her off.

In act three Lois decides to call Giles. Hugh phones to tell them he is a father. Brad turns down an offer to direct plays in New York and with money Granny gave him started a new theater. As the curtain closes Eunice and Bernard are happy with their fine family.

SLEEPING BEAUTY

The play "Sleeping Beauty of Loreland" was written by Louise Homer and produced by Miss Robertson with the help of Miss Emminger. The play was sponsored by the National Thespian Troupe 1106 as their contribution to U.N.E.S.C.O.

As the story opens, the King and Queen are preparing a christening for their new born princess and they are inviting the fairies; however, there are eleven fairies and only ten gold plates, so they decide to invite all but the black fairy. The evening comes and the fairies are giving their gifts to the princess, the black fairy arrives and gives a curse that when the princess becomes sixteen she will prick her finger and all the castle will fall asleep for a hundred years.

DIVERSIFIED OCCUPATIONS PROGRAM

The above students are shown during their on-job training which is a part of the new Diversified Occupations program offered to Seniors this year. The students are employed on a part-time basis. They also attend school part-time, where they receive instruction related to their job, and in educational subjects to meet graduation requirements.

The following employers supplying training jobs for these young people have rendered an invaluable service to the school and community:

May, 1961

My Dear Miss Goodwin:

How's the weather in sunny France today? Let's see, you've been gone for eight whole years. I bet you never dreamed of having such a long vacation. I was glad to have you show so much interest in the class of '51. Luanne helped me and I think I know who's doing what.

Yesterday in church Reverend J. D. Lantz read a letter from Esther who is a missionary.

This week we expect an exciting game of basketball when our coach Mal Coil and his K-Ville Comets meet Keith Coil's Auburn Red Devils. Of course you knew Leo is manager of the Cleveland Indians. Janet is National 4-H director.

Last week I visited the new school as Principal W. H. Wagner invited me. It certainly was a lifesaver when Don Gochenaur so ably took over the history classes. Another replacement is Bob Perkins in the agricultural department. In the elementary department that Newman, Edsall, and Dickerson, Constructors built, Luanne is teaching kindergarten. Up the escalator from her I found a quiet class-teacher who was doing most of the talking, that's Miriam's class. Joyce is another elementary teacher. I didn't have time to visit Hilda, the school nurse, as I had to rush for my appointment with No-More-Pain Dentist Soboslay.

We have a new car. Bryant and Fritz's Leading Energetic Collapsible, Ballec for short. Ann Appleman, the famous design-anything artist, designed the push button dash board. Now owning luxurious gas stations of their own, we find Walter Muesing and Don Godsell. An expert mechanic is Jim Good. Speaking of cars, Hilda's taxi is now owned and operated by Phyllis Wible. One of those classmates ought to bring me some business.

Marilyn writes me that the great psychologist and lawyer Jim Hetrick is opening an office a few doors from her. Marilyn is chief pharmacist in a Chicago drug store that her husband manages. Pat Fiandt is keeping books for her hubby's Ft. Wayne Long Lasting Lumber Company.

Roger and Kenny's dance hall is really prospering. Dancing instructors include Gail, Bertha, Dick Sutton and Keith Nesbitt. "Nancy's Music Charm School For Girls" is doing fine with Mr. Boegli, her chief piano accompanist. Now singing with the Metropolitan Opera Company are Jeanette Bourne and Bill Daberkow.

K-ville's famous television station KV-TV is now being operated by Lloyd Getts, Joe Leitch, and Homer Rasler. Their secretaries are Betty DeLong and Joan Pant. Among the local talent on television are "The Doris and Deloris Yodelers" and "Sadler Comedy Time."

Approaching the new "Serve-You-Well" Hospital we see Bussy Waller slowly maneuvering the ambulance. (Perhaps he has business for me.) This mammoth and elegant skyscraper is supervised by the Doctor Alfred Guistein, famous for his cancer-cure. He is assisted by many able nurses, some from our class—Donna Jennings, Doris Willets, Pat Kline, and surgical nurse, Liz Thrapp. Jackie Morr is the receptionist.

Joe Parker's and Jim Hile's "Snazzy Super-Duper Slop Shop" with waitresses Maxine Friskney, Patty Frey, Mary Bogner and Jerry Caldwell, is preparing to expand another block. It is located just across the street from the high school.

Did you know Josephine Goodwin and Jean Botchuck are comptometrests. And we also have a government employee—Helen Freed and her husband are in the Navy.

We are represented in the beauty profession, too. Stop at "Sharon and Shirley's Elite Beauty Saloon of 5th Avenue." I take all my customers to them.

Charles Moses has accepted a position with "Look" magazine thus competing with Dave who has complete charge of "Life's" photography.

Well, I believe that takes care of everyone who graduated in 1951. By the way, Miss Goodwin, none of these names are fictitious, but I must admit many of the girls' names are their maiden names.

Well, things are pretty lively except my business—it's pretty dead, so I think I'll try to dig up some for a change. The competition is what you might call "stiff." It's really a dying business. So Long. I'll be shoveling off. Write soon.

Susie

Last Will and Testament of Seniors

We, the class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-One, having served four years in the K.H.S. Institute for the crime of lacking education and having been parolled for good behavior; having been proven sane and not illiterate in spite of what the faculty members might say; do agree that it is our duty to pass on to all oncoming inmates any and all things we have enjoyed — and some that we haven't.

ARTICLE I

To the faithful faculty wardens, a can of luminous paint to keep them bright, our outgrown uniforms, soiled Canvas decks, dilapidated answer books, and all our debts for them to divide equally.

ARTICLE II

We will and bequeath our qualities, quantities, abilities, inabilities, and private possessions that we may or may not have as follows: Ann Appleman, my black hair and eyes to Karen Emerson; Roger Berkes, my student conducting in band to Fred Autenreith; Deloris and Doris Biddle, our twin clothes to Helen Brown and Betty Fisher; Mary Bogner, my quiet and shy way to Diane Erwin; Jeanette Bourne, my position in A-Cappella to Sandra Butler; Robert Bryant, my job at the Kroger Store to Jim Roderick; Jerolene Caldwell, my friends from Albion to Sue Trowbridge; Keith Coil, my position as usher at the Strand to anyone who needs a lot of exercise; Malcolm Coil, my red hair to Tom Sadler; Carolyn Cummins, my front seat in auditorium to someone who likes to sleep through programs; William Daberkow, my physique to John Rensberger; Betty DeLong, de long name to Donald Schhchtenmeyer; Cecil Dickerson, my presidency of F.F.A. to Kenny Bodenhafer; Margaret Eshelman, my ability to keep one man to Sara Grubb; Russell Edsall, my time at the pool hall to Eugene Coleman; Patnella Fiandt, my bobbie pins to Jane McKean; Miriam Flickinger and Susie Squire, our gift of quietness to Miss Goodwin's favorites, Kay Strater and Cleon Point; Helen Freed, my out-of-town boy friends to Elizabeth Bullock; Kenneth Freiburger, my limousine to Dick Showalter; LaVaughn Fritz, my trusty old Ford hack to Jim Smith; Maxine Friskney, my very much used books to my sister Patty; Esther Garrison, my seat on the school bus to Marjorie Reece; Nancy Gaskill, my way with Mr. Boegli to Carolyn Baker; Sharon Gehring and Jack Lantz, our ability to "get along" to Jean Hosler and John Thrapp; Lloyd Getts, my height to Phil White; Donald Gochenaur, my winning way with Miss Goodwin to my "cousin" Joe Landgraff; Donald Godsell, my battered and beat-up hot-rod to some speed demon Freshman; James Good, my athletic ability to Robert "Ambrose" Cox; Josephine Goodwin, my seat in Civics class to Billy Jo Menzel; Gail Greiling, my way with baseball players to Marilyn Seagly; Alfred Gutstein, my department grades to Larry Shippy. Bertha Haney, my time spent with a certain person to his kid sister Rose Marie; James Hetrick, everything I would like to have, but haven't, to some lucky soul who has them and wishes he didn't. Jim Hile, my boisterous in classes to meek Charlie Miller; Leo Hornett, my secret of getting to the cuntry without owning a car to any city slicker who needs to know; Donna Jennings, my ability to blush to Carol Howell; Luanne Johnson, my love for classical music to Janice "Luhbelle" Owne; Patty Kline, my slim figure to Doretta Duncan; Joe Leitch, my freckles to Ruth Scott to go with her red hair; Joyce Mitnar, my long walk to school to Zula Davis; Jacqueline Morr, my little brother to Beulah Hamlin; Charles Moses, my knowledge of the Kendalville alleys to Wayne Wiese; David Moses, my fateful back stage work to Scott Grieling; Walter Muesing, my politics with Miss Goodwin to John Thrapp; Roger Newman, my manly physique to Reginald Neal; Joan Pant, my natural curly red hair to Lawrence Ackerman; Joe Parker, my way with women to Kay Schuman; Robert Perkins, my J-H achievements to my sister Faith; Homer Rasler, my banker's hours at school to any school skipper who is lucky; Richard Sadler, Ollie to some "Norwegian" Junior who needs a companion; Shirley Schlichtenmeyer, my job at the Strand to anyone who can stand my pests, Point and Preston; Marilyn Seany, my serious way to Rhonda McKeever; Janet Shaffer, my jobs as secretary to anyone who can write legibly; Betty Smolinske, the persistent statue from Waterloo in my front yard to anyone who has lots of time for it; William Sablosky, my ears to Craig Fisher; Richard Sutton, my "technique" with the fairer sex to Delano Wise; Elizabeth Thrapp, my love for grapes to anyone who is stupid enough to have that craving; William Wagner, my carefree "out-of-joint" walk to Grace Wiese; Charles Walter, my job as student manager to Mike Butterbaugh; Phyllis Wible, my deluxe sedan to Jim Marti and Charles Wilson, if they can maneuver it; Doris Willits, my small feet to Herald Mef-jed; David Zawadzke, to the nurse's aides Carolyn Spidel and Ruth Blechle, I will the creatures on our farm to be used for experiments instead of their patients.

ARTICLE III

To our mates not mentioned above a pack of rubber bands to give them snappy ideas, our supply of second-hand chewing gum found underneath the desks; our marked and torn text books; all papers, pencils, or anything else we might have borrowed; and our good reputation.

ARTICLE IV

We do hereby appoint Miss Laura Goodwin, the brave all-around sponsor of this class, as executrix of this our last will and testimony. May she be spared from the chair or any other severe torture as she is not to blame for the many deeds we have done.

Whereof, we have set our pen and seal this 23 day of May, Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-One.

The class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-One as and for their last will and testament in our presence of each other, have herunto subscribed our names as witnesses.
